Lantra Learner of the Year Award

Nine SRUC students and Modern Apprentices have been nominated for Lantra Scotland's 16th Learner of the Year Awards.

Barony Brexit event a big draw

Continuing uncertainty over Brexit means farmers should waste no time in reviewing their businesses and also make full use of developments and technology.

£4m for research to aid sustainable livestock production in Africa

Research to improve the health and productivity of farmed animals in tropical climates has received a £4 million boost from the UK Government.

SAC Consulting announces carcase collection scheme

A subsidised scheme that could save farmers significant money and time in the animal post-mortem process has been set up in Dumfries and Galloway.

A date for your dairy

The increasingly important role played by state-of-the-art technology in Scotland's dairy industry will be explored in a special open farm event in Dumfries.