

WW1 allotment goes to the Royal Highland Show

The Oatridge Campus of SRUC's WW1 allotment project will be showcased at this year's Royal Highland Show within the Countryside Cottage demonstration area.

SRUC joins list of supporters of rural charity RSABI

SRUC has become a corporate supporter of RSABI, the Scottish charity providing practical support and financial assistance to individuals and families across agriculture and the land-based industries.

A busy summer for SRUC's new mobile CT scanner

The new mobile CT scanner run by Scotland's Rural College, faces a busy summer on the road.

SRUC Edinburgh student presents at international conference

A student at the Edinburgh Campus of SRUC, who studied his BSC (Hons) in Horticulture last year, has presented at an international conference in Lisbon, Portugal.

SRUC shortlisted for prestigious education awards

Staff at Scotland's Rural College (SRUC) are celebrating after becoming one of the Herald Higher Education Awards finalists.