

Professor Sarah Skerratt becomes a Fellow of Royal Society of Arts

Professor Sarah Skerratt, Director of SRUC's Rural Policy Centre, has been honoured by becoming a Fellow of the prestigious Royal Society of Arts (RSA).

SRUC researchers interact with over 2000 children at Edinburgh International Science Festival

Over 2000 children (and enthusiastic parents!) took part in two activities hosted by SRUC researchers as part of this year's Edinburgh International Science Festival.

Top secret food and drink excellent awards judging takes place at SRUC

SRUC Elmwood has been hosting the prestigious annual Scotland's Food and Drink Excellence Award judging – designed to select the very best of Scotland's larder.

Sarah Skerrat becomes a fellow of Royal Society of Arts

Sarah Skerrat, the director of SRUC's Rural Policy Centre, has been honoured by becoming a Fellow of the prestigious Royal Society of Arts (RSA).

Graduates reunite for alumni golf day

SRUC Elmwood Golf Course recently hosted an alumni golf day which brought together over 60 current and former professional golf students.