

SRUC principal appointed to DFID group

The principal of Scotland's Rural College has been appointed to the UK's Department for International Development's (DFID's) Science Advisory Group (SAG).

Farmers urged to wade into bird conservation

Farmers and land managers have an important role to play in reversing the declining numbers of wading birds in Scotland, according to a new report.

Understanding animals' emotions

Scotland's Rural College has teamed up with a leading UK supermarket in a pioneering project to assess the emotional expressivity of animals in the supply chain.

Farmers urged to prepare plan B

Farming consultants have created an emergency document to help farmers plan ahead in case they fall ill during the coronavirus pandemic.

Sowing the seeds for research project

Researchers at Scotland's Rural College have created an apple pollination experiment to help parents who are home schooling their children.