

Eileen takes up presidency

The Head of Research at Scotland's Rural College has been appointed President of the British Society of Animal Science (BSAS).

Strangles symposium success

Eradicating strangles – the UK's most prevalent infectious equine disease – could become a reality if more people were inspired to take action.

Jay to remember for students

One of Britain's best-known food critics has met with hospitality students at Scotland's Rural College.

Aiming for the pinnacle

Three students from Scotland's Rural College are among eight finalists shortlisted in the 2019 Farmers Club Pinnacle Awards.

Exploring the rural-urban divide

An SRUC researcher has been speaking about the "rural-urban divide" at the Council of Europe in Strasbourg.