BEPS public consultation on the tax challenges of digitalisation

Date: 1 November 2017

Meeting Time: 09:30 – 17:15 (PDT)

Location: Warren Room, Simon Hall, 2745 Bancroft Way, School of Law the University of California, Berkeley, USA

About

As part of the ongoing work of the Task Force on the Digital Economy (TFDE), the OECD sought public comments on key issues identified in a request for input related to the tax challenges raised by digitalisation and the potential options to address these challenges.

This public consultation will focus on matters covered by the written submissions that have been received:

Persons wishing to apply to attend the public consultations are invited to click here to start their application for registration. Please indicate the organisation you are representing in the appropriate box of the registration form.

All interested persons (including those who have pre-registered online) are invited to attend. No further confirmation will be sent. An “overflow” room will be available if there is insufficient space in the main meeting room, and we encourage attendees to arrive early.

Mr. Angel Gurría, Secretary-General of the OECD, in Washington, DC from 12 to 14 October 2017

Mr. Angel Gurría, Secretary-General of the OECD, will be in Washington, DC from 12 to 14 October 2017 to attend the G20 Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors Meeting (FM&CBG) and the 2017 International Monetary Fund / World Bank Annual Meetings.

Government at a Glance

Government at a Glance 2017 delivers public service performance data and comparisons, providing a vision of the state of the public sector and the trends that are shaping it across the OECD and beyond.

With over 200 indicators, it offers data and insights for governments that seek to better understand their own practices and who wish to benchmark their achievements. Policy makers, journalists, academics and the general public will benefit from its detailed comparisons and clear presentation of the data used to understand the bigger picture.
