

Task Force on Land Supply to hold first public forum

The Task Force on Land Supply will hold four public forums from June to August to gauge public views on land supply options.

Details and enrolment arrangements of the first public forum are as follows:

Date: June 16 (Saturday)

Time: 2pm to 5pm

Venue: Leighton Hill Community Hall

(133 Wong Nai Chung Road, Happy Valley, Hong Kong)

The forum will be conducted in Cantonese. Simultaneous interpretation in English will be available. Interested members of the public may register from tomorrow (June 4) at 9am by using the following methods:

(i) Online: www.landforhongkong.hk/en/participation/engage_act.php;

(ii) Email/fax: download the registration form from the above website for return via email (pflandforhongkong.hk@a-world.com.hk) or fax (2865 2559); or

(iii) Telephone: 2114 4972 (9am to 5pm).

Registration will close on June 8 (Friday) at 5pm. In view of the limited seating capacity at the venue, only one seat can be reserved for each registration, and requests will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis.

Enrolment arrangements and other details of the remaining three public forums will be announced in due course.

For enquiries, please contact the Public Engagement Director for the Task Force by telephone at 2114 4972 (9am to 5pm from Monday to Friday) or email (pflandforhongkong.hk@a-world.com.hk).
