

TD deeply concerned about serious bus traffic accident at Fanling Highway

The Transport Department (TD) expressed deep concern about the serious bus traffic accident at Fanling Highway this afternoon (December 18). The TD is deeply sorry for the incident and extended condolences to the victims and their families. The TD has immediately contacted the Kowloon Motor Bus Company to understand the accident and has requested the bus company to submit an investigation report as soon as possible and follow up. It is understood that the Police will conduct a thorough investigation, including the detainment of the bus involved for a detailed vehicle examination. The TD will closely liaise with the Police to learn the examination result and follow up accordingly.
