

Temporary closure of Fu Shin Post Office and Tai Po Post Office for thorough cleaning and disinfection

Hongkong Post said today (March 26) that as some postal staff members have been confirmed as having COVID-19, Fu Shin Post Office and Tai Po Post Office are closed today for thorough cleaning and disinfection of all the facilities and mail items of the premises pursuant to the guidelines set out by the Centre for Health Protection (CHP) of the Department of Health (DH). The remaining 118 post offices maintain normal services. For details, please refer to the following

The postal staff members concerned underwent temperature screening when attending work and their body temperature was normal. They were wearing masks while on duty. Upon notification of the cases, Hongkong Post arranged for all postal staff members concerned to undergo COVID-19 testing.

Members of the public can access postal services at Wan Tau Tong Post Office (G/F, Wan Tau Tong Shopping Centre) nearby. Hongkong Post apologises for the inconvenience caused. For enquiries, members of the public may call the Hongkong Post enquiry hotline at 2921 2222.

Hongkong Post will continue to implement measures for social distancing and infection control at all postal facilities to safeguard the health of staff and the public, and maintain close liaison with the CHP of the DH. Staff members are also reminded to take note of their personal hygiene and stay vigilant at all times, and are advised to seek medical advice immediately in case of feeling unwell.
