

Temporary closure of the Admiralty Office of Legal Advice Scheme for Unrepresented Litigants on Civil Procedures

The Administration Wing of Chief Secretary for Administration's Office (CSO) today (February 27) announced that the Legal Advice Scheme for Unrepresented Litigants on Civil Procedures at the High Court Building in Admiralty would be temporarily closed from tomorrow (February 28) for disinfection until further notice. A staff member was tested positive upon taking COVID-19 rapid antigen test. Members of the public can access the service at the office at WanChai Tower.

The staff member concerned last performed duties at the office on February 25, working at a counter behind a partition to keep an appropriate social distance from the public. She wore masks and followed relevant disease prevention measures while at work.

The Administration Wing of CSO has been strictly implementing various disease prevention measures during the epidemic and staff members are reminded to pay attention to personal hygiene and to stay vigilant. They should seek medical advice immediately if feeling unwell.
