

Temporary suspension of Coin Cart services

The following is issued on behalf of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority:

In view of the latest situation of COVID-19, the Coin Cart services will be temporarily suspended with effect from tomorrow (March 25) until further notice. The service suspension is a preventive measure to reduce social contact.

The Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) will continue to monitor and review the situation closely, and make further announcement as appropriate. Members of the public are advised to visit the HKMA website or the official Facebook page for the latest information of Coin Cart services.
