

'Terning' the tide for seabird decline in Lancashire

Natural England and partners have launched an innovative habitat restoration project designed to create safe spaces for seabirds within the Lune Estuary.