

The Conservatives' Cabinet of chaos is presiding over the slowest growing country in the G7 – Dowd

Peter

Dowd MP, Labour's Shadow Chief Secretary to the Treasury, commenting on new ONS figures that show household spending growth has slowed to its weakest pace for two and a half years, said:

"The figures from the ONS today are a stark reflection of seven years of Tory economic failure.

"The Conservatives' Cabinet of chaos is now presiding over the slowest growing country in the G7 – household spending is slowing, the number of young people not in work or education remains largely unchanged and business investment has stalled.

"It is time for a Labour government that will create an economy that works for the many not the few."
