

The Environment Agency invests £225,000 into local angling

The Environment Agency has invested £224,787 into more than 60 local angling projects in the South East.