

The Environment Agency offers online consultation on next phase of the £25m Carlisle flood risk management scheme

Business owners and residents are invited to have their say on the proposed works for Phase two of the scheme as part of this consultation.