

The GPA achieves important accreditation

Following an external audit, the Government Property Agency's Environmental Management System has been accredited to the international standard.