

The Lord Caine visits Downpatrick and highlights the resilience of the community and businesses after Storm Ciarán

During the visit, The Lord Caine highlighted the UK Government's commitment to the local businesses and the community