

The MHRA issues final call to comply with Windsor Framework arrangements for medicines from January 2025

With industry already showing a very high level of readiness, the MHRA is reminding remaining marketing authorisation holders to ensure they are prepared for the new packaging and labelling measures