

The UK encourages the Central African region to commit to inclusive political transitional processes: UK statement at the UN Security Council

Statement by Ambassador James Kariuki at the UN Security Council meeting on the Central African region.