

The UK is deeply concerned about the potential for escalation in the Middle East and calls on all parties to reduce tensions: UK statement at the UN Security Council

Statement by Ambassador James Kariuki at the UN Security Council meeting on the strike in Damascus.