

Theresa May's reckless approach to our country's future will see a generation of young people losing out – Rayner

Angela Rayner MP, Labour's Shadow Secretary of State for Education, commenting on the Social Mobility Commission report, said:

“This report from the Government's own Social Mobility Commission shows that their policies will not improve social mobility in Britain.

“School budgets are being slashed, Sure Start Centres are being lost and there is nothing approaching a skills plan that will let us face the challenges of post-Brexit Britain.
