

Thousands more pupils to receive support to improve attendance

Government announces four new attendance hubs, widening the support to a total of 400,000 pupils.