

Thousands of trees planted in Leeds to reduce flood risk and mitigate climate change

5,000 trees have been planted at the Leeds Brownlee Triathlon Centre as part of a Natural Flood Management Programme being delivered as part of phase two of the Leeds Flood Alleviation Scheme.