

Thousands of young people secure place at top university choice

76% of English 18-year-old applicants have been accepted into their first choice of university.