

Three men holding charged with murder

Police today (September 7) laid a holding charge against three men, aged 21 to 22, jointly with one count of murder.

Three men were arrested yesterday (September 6) who were in suspected connection with the murder case happened in Mong Kok on June 25 in which a 27-year-old man died.

The case will be mentioned at Kowloon City Magistrates' Courts tomorrow (September 8) morning.

Police arrested 11 men and two women in suspected connection with the case earlier. Two arrested men, aged 21 and 28 respectively, were laid a holding charge jointly with one count of murder. Six arrested men and one arrested woman, aged 22 to 29, were laid a holding charge jointly with one count of murder. Another 24-year-old arrested man was charged with one count of wounding with intent. The remaining three arrestees have been released on bail and are required to report back to Police in late September and early October respectively.

Active follow-up action by the Regional Crime Unit of Kowloon West is underway.