

Tough government action on student visas comes into effect

From 1 January 2024, tough government action means most international students can now no longer bring family members to the UK.