

TRA investigates imports of tin mill products from China

The TRA has initiated a new investigation into tin mill products from China, following an application asking for an anti-dumping measure to be imposed.