

Traffic accident involving CSD vehicle

At about 4.10pm today (July 3), a Correctional Services Department vehicle conveying a 29-year-old female person in custody involved in a traffic accident at Tolo Highway. Correctional officers on board immediately called for reinforcement.

The person in custody and three correctional officers felt unwell and they were subsequently sent to a public hospital for examination and treatment.

The case was reported to the Police for follow-up.