

Traffic enforcement operation against illegal parking in New Territories South Region concludes

New Territories South Region today (January 24) concluded a three-day traffic enforcement operation against illegal parking in Tsuen Wan, Kwai Tsing, Sha Tin, Airport and Lantau police districts.

During the operation, a total of 2,866 fixed penalty tickets were issued and two vehicles causing obstruction were towed away.

Police will continue to step up enforcement actions to ensure smooth traffic during the Lunar New Year period.
