

“Trailblazing” councils save millions working with government counter fraud squad

Minister Neville-Rolfe today convened counter fraud experts representing 13 local authorities across the country to share best practice in the fight on fraud.