

Transcript of remarks by S for S at media session after LegCo Panel on Security policy briefing-and-meeting

Following is the transcript of remarks by the Secretary for Security, Mr Tang Ping-keung, at a media session after the Legislative Council Panel on Security policy briefing-and-meeting today (November 13):

Reporter: Can you comment on the recent arrest of a man related to the 1991 watch shop burglary that caused the death of the shop owner? Where was he during the last 30 years? And are there any updates on the other two suspects?

Secretary for Security: The case is now still under active investigation by the Police. I am sure that at appropriate time there will be an announcement by the Police releasing the details of the case.

(Please also refer to the Chinese portion of the transcript.)