

Transport Secretary sets out 5 key priorities to deliver the biggest overhaul to transport in a generation

It will take all our effort but the new motto of our department – our purpose – is simple: move fast and fix things.