

Travel Industry Authority supports Government's introduction of vaccination leave

The following is issued on behalf of the Travel Industry Authority:

The Travel Industry Authority (TIA) welcomes the Government's announcement today (May 31) on the introduction of a day of vaccination leave for each vaccination dose received by government employees, and will make a similar arrangement.