

Tsang Man-tung to host talks in multimedia lecture-performance series (II)

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department will present the "On Sounds, Colours, Images and Forms" multimedia lecture-performance series (II) in March and April. The series is hosted by scenographer and singing bowl artist Tsang Man-tung and will feature lectures from four speakers.

In each of the lectures there will be an interactive performance and each of the four speakers will use their respective multi-media medium as well as a singing bowl performance to explore artistic expressions relating to sounds, colours, images and forms. The host and speakers will also discuss how elements of physical movements, sounds, images, light and shadows can merge to form a new spatial realm on the performance stage.
