

Two men and an online media company charged with conspiracy to publish seditious publication

Police National Security Department today (December 30) officially laid charges against two men, aged 34 and 52 respectively, and an online media company, each with one count of conspiracy to publish seditious publication. The National Security Department also issued prosecution document to the company, prosecuting the company for committing the above-mentioned offence and requesting them to appoint representatives to attend the court mention this afternoon.

The two persons were arrested yesterday (December 29) for conspiracy to publish seditious publication, contravening section 9 and 10 of the Crimes Ordinance.

The case will be mentioned at the West Kowloon Magistrates' Courts this afternoon.

The other arrestees are being detained for further enquires.
