

Tyne Valley investment continues five years on from Storm Desmond

Multi-million pound Environment Agency investment brings continued improvements to the Tyne Valley, which was the worst affected area in the North East.