

UK and Albania working innovatively to build on migration partnership success

The Foreign Secretary travels to Albania to underline the success of our partnership to tackle people smugglers and illegal migration.