

UK and Australia boost growth and defence partnership at summit in London

The UK and Australia will reinforce their economic and defence partnership and bolster co-operation on shared global challenges at this year's AUKMIN meeting