

UK and India leaders celebrate strong financial ties

Back-to-back events in London have brought together senior ministers and business representatives in a showcase of the UK-India economic and trade partnership.