

UK and international partners announce further sanctions against Iranian officials

The UK has sanctioned officials within the Iranian regime responsible for heinous human rights abuses.