

UK and Singapore agree landmark Financial Partnership for financial services

An historic new partnership for financial services between the UK and Singapore, which will help to boost jobs and investment in the UK, has been agreed by the Chancellor today (30 June).