

UK and South Korea expand Youth Mobility schemes for young people

The expansion takes effect later this month, with increased annual quota, increased age range and the removal of the ballot process.