

UK announces £100 million of new aid for over three million vulnerable people in Ethiopia as humanitarian crisis deepens

More than three million Ethiopians, including mothers and babies, will receive lifesaving help from the UK through a new humanitarian aid programme.