

UK announces £5 million funding to expand the Met Office's Weather and Climate Information Services activity in the MENA region

The UK has now committed £60 million over 5 years to tackle climate and biodiversity issues in the Middle East and North Africa.