

UK announces further support for Ukraine's efforts to bring war criminals to justice

The UK Government has announced funding to support the documentation, investigation and prosecution of war crimes in Ukraine.