

UK announces humanitarian assistance for 150,000 women and children suffering drought and conflict in Ethiopia

A new £14 million UK funding package is expected to reach up to 150,000 people with comprehensive health, water sanitation, hygiene and nutrition services.