

UK announces new Belarus sanctions to mark anniversary of sham election

The UK has sanctioned four individuals and three entities from Belarus in coordinated action with international partners.