

UK announces new support to Southern African rail

UK commits to funding research and technical assistance aimed at promoting regional growth by facilitating railway development across Southern Africa.