

UK announces steps to provide more consumer choice through Overseas Funds Regime

The new regime will support greater competition in the sector and more choice to consumers, supporting industry growth.