

UK approves use of export finance to secure critical minerals

UK Export Finance can now provide financial support for overseas projects that source critical minerals for use in major UK industries.